

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF MARKETING POLICY

This Binding Terms Sheet dated February 7, 2018 pursuant to which IWG and Members agreed to comply with the principal terms and conditions.

Parties:

The International Women's Group of Warsaw (hereinafter as "IWG") is a non-political, non-religious, non-commercial social group open to all nationalities.

The IWG members ("hereinafter as "Members") is a person who join the IWG with membership following all IWG activities, IWG social network and other benefits.

(Collectively Parties and each a Party)

The IWG recognizes the networking nature of a such a group, and we support Members in their business endeavors and wish them success.

To help make the IWG experience enjoyable for everyone, Members are asked to adhere to certain guidelines while engaging in promoting their business.

1. Members business:

For purposes of promoting, Members shall use the only IWG Facebook Group (hereinafter as "Facebook") to promote Members business to introduce about the business, services, classes, products, events with some images but limited to twice in the IWG calendar year (September to August).

2. Members responsibilities in connection with sales or services

2.1 Subject to Members business shall be their own business in different fields in the territory of Poland and shall comply with all Polish Law and Regulations in connections with its performance under this Principle Terms.

2.2 The Facebook group may be used to discuss products or businesses, but limited to twice in the IWG calendar (September to August).

2.3 Members shall not interfere with IWG events (small groups, programs, monthly meetings) with the purpose to promote Members business. Members may hand out their business cards after the formal part of the IWG Events has ended, but no sales events shall be encouraged.

2.4 Members shall strictly not use member's email from IWG member's list, contact information or various emails.

3. IWG responsibilities

3.1 Subject to non-commercial social group, the IWG shall not take any responsibilities or obligation of Members business under any Polish Law in the territory of Poland.

3.2 IWG will not run any private programs or small groups with a commercial intention.

3.3 IWG shall help to promote Members business through the IWG Member Business Directory (available on the IWG website) on request.

4. For general members:

Members may promote or post their personal items for sale in the Facebook and in the Newsletter subject to once per month (Example: moving sales, children's items, donations for charity..etc)